Sense of Taste

Human beings (like you!) have five ways of sensing the world around them: hearing, sight, taste, touch, and smell. Complete the activity below to learn about your sense of taste.

Cut out the food and paste it onto the tongue above.

[Diagram showing the distribution of taste buds on the tongue with different foods representing each taste: strawberry for sweet, lemon for sour, olive for salty, pretzel for bitter.]