Characters Can Change Just Like We Do!
Reader’s Response

Book Title: ____________________________________________

Author: ________________________________________________

Character: ____________________________________________

Here are some things my character SAID or DID at the beginning of the story:

Based on these details, I think this character...
Here are some things my character SAID or DID in the middle/at the end of the story:

Using the details you recorded above, make a claim about your character. How did he or she change? How do you know?