New Year’s Resolutions

The new year means a new start. What do you want to do differently? Take some time to think about what went well in 2009, and what your resolutions are for the upcoming year.

Before you start writing about the future, let’s talk about the past. What did you like most about 2009?

Think about school for a minute. Did the dog always eat your homework? Did you try out for the school play? How did things go last year and what do you want to change for 2010?

Friends help keep you smiling. Who were your best buddies this year and who do you want to spend time with next year? What do you want to do together in 2010?

Dream big for the upcoming year...and write it down! Will you visit the Grand Canyon? Learn to ice skate? Volunteer at the local food bank? What are your resolutions for 2010?
